RISE OF THE BIALIENSAPIEN PART/BOOK 3 After Jaden recues Dr. Chan from the Federal prison, they make it to her father’s house where Jaden meets Dr. Chan’s jealous robotic boyfriend Max. Jaden’s goal is to quickly make it from Virginia to NYC to save a family member and then leave doomed Earth. Vice President Robinson is Jaden’s biggest obstacle. Jaden is at the top of the most wanted terrorist list. He borrows her father’s 2015 Bugatti green technology sports car and uses his alien technology to go against Thermobaric bombs, F35 jetfighters, batbullets, nanorockets, miniguns, UAVs, state police and military. Robinson activates super computer "Motherdrone" to send all tanks and predator drones onto Jaden’s location, this sets up for the "God of all car chases." President Stefanie Paylin later proves herself as a fighter and leader for her country. Paylin battles it out against robots in an exo-skeleton suit and proves that a female can kick ass if she has too. A Dark Energy Knight touches down on Earth and proves to be an unstoppable force against humanity. An enemy with the powers of a black hole is an evil only Jaden can face. Jaden can feel the Darclonian mothership sitting behind Earth’s moon waiting to take over human minds and body as the countdown gets closer to zero. The Nanomoles in human brains are keeping them walking around like zombies and making them prisoners in their own body. Jaden feels an evil force inside of him spreading around his body turning him into something else. Jaden wants answers to what he is turning into and wants to find out what the Darclonians want with him and humans. He hitches a ride from on top of the Taipei 101 building and is beamed onto the mother ship. Jaden is shocked at what he sees humans are being used for. Jaden has some tough choices to make as he meets the evil Dark Energy Queen of manipulation. The life of every human being is in Jaden’s hands. Five favorite quotes of book 3, most voted on by readers: 1.President S. Paylin: "Who’s side are you on? The Darclonian aliens trying to take over this planet? The real terrorists? You had good intel and you ignored it because you had an ego to go after someone who was here to help us.... You committed a conspiracy to have the President of the United States killed. Mutiny in Washington, D.C.? You put millions of American citizens’ lives at risk today. You put this entire planet at risk because of your ignorant, egotistic, macho man bull*hit. ...You starting your own war by destroying billions of dollars in federal highways in my country? That is not protecting America You are the terrorist " She yells. _____ 2. Dark Energy Queen: "...I just want you to open your eyes and see things from another perspective. You can be the new leader and be your own god. You can be the new Jesus and o A.D. can start in two hours. You can be worshipped by billions of other species. You can create your own Bialien Universal King Marino Bible, full of facts and science that all species will follow..." 'Are you seriously smoking something? Do you hear how crazy you sound?" Jaden asks.

Book 2 starts off with Jaden returning to Earth 18 years later in his upgraded spaceship. The year is 2014 and he has only aged 1-2 months. His bio-engineered body is slowly evolving into superhuman levels. His mission is to help scientist locate the Nanomole in humans and then deactivate it, before the Darclonian mothership enters broadcast range. When a Nanomole is activated and is in the correct stage, it can control a human body. It would need to synchronize with a Bio-parasite for a permanent takeover of the human mind (Bio-parasites are Darclonians in microbe form). There is the first female president on television, along with commercials on holographic discs, 3D televisions, electric cars and onlineThird Virtual life. There are also doctors in robotic remote controlled LCD screens. Times have changed and societal values have deteriorated significantly with the advent of the technology age. The combination of cheating, negotiated infidelity, high divorce rates, male and female robotic companions, and online virtual sex have helped to erode fundamental human values. Jaden is aware of the silent alien attack that is about to take place against humans. A countdown will soon begin, ending with all human brains being highjacked by nanomoles. Nanomoles are Darclonian microbes deposited on Earth after the last ice age. When the mother ship gets close enough to Earth, they activate and an eighty-four hour countdown begins. In the area of Jaden’s mind that governs different personalities, there is a microscopic artificial intelligence alien companion named AI. Specifically designed for his mission on Earth, AI helps Jaden navigate his upgraded mind and body, and is second in charge of the colony of nanodrones throughout Jaden’s body. Jaden meets Dr. Chan, a Forensic Scientist. She is at the psychiatric ward to investigate why his DNA can't be identified. She first believes he is crazy and is not revealing his true identity. Jaden agrees to "show" her the truth instead of telling her. It is a race against time when Jaden’s old government nemesis Vice President Robinson finds out he has returned to Earth. Robinson puts Jaden on a terrorist list and uses all the government’s resources to kill him. Vice President Robinson keeps President S. Paylin in complete ignorance on the impending alien attack. Robinson believes Jaden is the conspirator and is causing the strange disorders in humans. Robinson begins his own conspiracy to be the next president of the United States. Love and romance follows the chapters as the silent attack on humans begins. What to expect? Jaden breaking out of a psychiatric ward. Jaden looking for family members. Jaden remote controlling into the pilots brains of a doomed 737. Jaden breaking into a federal prison using: Gravity shockwaves, Atomic solar recharges, 100% of his brain, Nanotime and Atom rippers.
