Law*

This type of law refers to the relationship between creditors and debtors. Once a creditor has a judgment the debtor often pays the full amount of the judgment. If the debtor cannot pay, the creditor and debtor may agree upon a payment schedule. If the debt is not paid and no payment plan is agreed upon the creditor may take steps to collect on the judgment.

Debtor-creditor law applies to all non-bankruptcy aspects of the relationship between creditors and debtors. One of the main goals of debtor-creditor lawyers is to keep their clients out of bankruptcy court. Issues include, but are not limited to, the proper procedures for extending credit; consumers' rights with respect to debt collection; and the different forms of credit satisfaction, such as liens and debt priority.
