Moreno-Garcia blends magic in the real world seamlessly, so I ' m excited to see her tackle the 1920s Jazz Age and Mayan mythology. My graduate studies before I went to library school focused on the history and politics of Central America, so I have always been fascinated by pre-Columbian traditions, myths, and histories.

Some say that it was destroyed in secret, while others believe that it still remains in Iceland, continuing to hide his dark book of magic. The story of the bishop, who became a master of black magic, has remained a well-known story in Iceland, passed down through the generations. But it is one which is rarely commented on by the Catholic Church.
