They're back! Those adorable farmboys in their shiny black slicker suits, ready to romp through the mud and into your heart. With their big boots, big smiles, and bigger senses of humor, these wonderful lads are at it again, exploring the farm, taking a blast from the hose, and even getting a pie in the face all in the name of fun. Come along with them and see why being a country boy may be a fine thing, but it's better by far to be a pigboy! In this sequel volume to the well-received PIGBOYS, an all-new lineup of models don the rubber farm gear for the camera. Art students, an environmental specialist, even a Mormon missionary are among the fresh-faced young men ready to provide a clean-cut escort to HOG HEAVEN.

As the most prestigious name in American boatbuilders, the Chris-Craft is a lovingly crafted vessel with wood hulls, swank chrome and brawny motors. Color photos take a look at the history and details of this beloved boat. 100 photos.

Publisher Description

For more than half a century, Chris-Craft reigned supreme in the world of motorboating. This market dominance was due in no small part to the design and construction techniques employed in the
