Go To Liberty Patricia Hilliard

It's a timeless story, and New Jersey environmental activist Patricia Hilliard puts her own twist on it in this book. Here, the special place is a plot of land next to "Liberty Park" (based, I guess, on the real "Liberty State Park." The company is a foundry that polluted the land, donated it to the park, then tried to buy it back to develop.

HilliardBooks. My newest work is: Go To Liberty. Inspired by my experiences as an activist, volunteer and seasonal employee of Liberty State Park, I created this novel with an environmental theme, Go To Liberty. discusses issues in regard to the environment, parks and what parks and nature mean to people. The novel shows the lives of two women. Young Eva Kaufman, who is trying to find her identity in life and Amanda Walters, who is an old park activist still keeping a watchful eye on the ...
