one-word response? Communication between mothers and sons can sometimes be hard--but this beautiful journal gives them a chance to connect and learn more about each other. Each page is filled with activities and questions for parent or child to complete that will open a loving discussion about experiences, treasured memories, favorite foods and movies, and more.

With the same brilliant combination of humor and warmth she brought to bestseller Bird by Bird, Anne Lamott gives us a smart, funny, and comforting chronicle of single motherhood. It's not like she's the only woman to ever have a baby. At thirty-five. On her own. But Anne Lamott makes it all fresh in her now-classic account of how she and her son and numerous friends and neighbors and some strangers survived and thrived in that all important first year.

From finding out that her baby is a boy (and getting used to the idea) to finding out that her best friend and greatest supporter Pam will die of cancer (and not getting used to that idea), with a generous amount of wit and faith (but very little piousness), Lamott narrates the great and small events that make up a woman's life.

"Lamott has a conversational style that perfectly conveys her friendly, self-deprecating humor." -- Los Angeles Times Book Review "Lamott is a wonderfully lithe writer Anyone who has ever had a hard time facing a perfectly ordinary day will identify." -- Chicago Tribune
