Jack, This is My Husband. Letters I Never Mailed was an obvious fit for the Eastman Studies in Music series, since Wilder is a Rochester native and his archive is housed in the Eastman School of Music's Sibley Library. The book is exactly what it says: letters Wilder wrote with no intention of mailing. The addressees range from the famous to the unknown, from his good friend Frank Sinatra to ...

My First Book at Boydell: Letters I Never Mailed: Clues to ...
Letters I Never Mailed, hailed at its first publication (in 1975, by Little, Brown), tells the story of Wilder's musical and personal life through unsent "letters" addressed to various friends. "In it, he shares his insights - and sometimes salty opinions - on composing, musical life, and the tension between art and commercialism.
