If you do not have a manual visit singer.com and buy the one you need. Next, you should unplug your sewing machine and start to locate all the exterior screws. Remove those and look at the motor. If it is at the back, take it off as well. At this point, you should be able to see loose threads, lint, or other obstructions. Use tweezers to remove those items and get ready to lubricate the ...
