The Second War Of American

Independence. The War of 1812 was an important war between the forces of the United Kingdom and the United States, and it lasted from 1812 until 1815. The reason why this war is considered to be a second

American Revolution is that some historians see this war as a second war for American independence. This war is considered a political disaster for the United States, as well as a great military loss.
